THANKS

We wish to say THANKS to all those who came out in July to support our 2nd Annual HULMEVILLE NIGHT at Dean Casmitti's. It was a great night and a very successful fundraiser for HHS. Including raffle ticket sales and proceeds from the meals sold you made this event a very successful evening!

THANKS

On behalf of the Board and members of HHS and our larger community, we wish to THANK Dean Casmirri and his staff for hosting our 2nd Annual Hulmeville Night.

THANKS also to those who donated items for our Raffle Baskets and to Kristen Rossi Abell, who put them together.

THANKS to Sage Werbock for donating the Rose sculpture we raffled off.

CHECK IT OUT-

The Hulmeville Historical Society now has a new, revamped website which will feature new photos and information and can be found at:

SPECIAL EVENT

On Thursday, September 5th at 7:00pm in Borough Hall, we are again hosting Bucks County author, Marie Duess. Mrs. Duess has presented a program for the Society in the past and is the author of numerous historically based novels, magazine and newspaper articles and two non-fiction history books including, Colonial Inns and Taverns of Bucks County and her latest, The Delaware Canal, From Stone Coal Highway to Historic Landmark, which she will share with us. Public invited; refreshments served.

ANNUAL HULMEVILLE FLEA MARKET

Saturday, September 28, 8am-3pm, the Firehouse, Churches and many of the homes in the Borough will be participating in the Flea Market sponsored by the Historical Society. This is our biggest fundraising effort of the year. Each organization or resident that participates is asked to make a donation to the Society and our former "Mr. Hulmevilles" will be stopping by to collect your donation. To reserve a table call 215-752-8228.

Items for the Food Basket Raffle and Bake Table are needed and can be left at Kay Nicastro's 109 Penna. Ave or for pick up call 215-757-0454.

Raffles, 50/50 and the 26 Week Club drawings will be held at 2:30pm.

Teenagers are needed to man the snow cone and cotton candy machines throughout the day. Interested persons should call Marce Heald at 215-891-0445.

Help is needed to set up our tables at the Fire House on Friday evening and to man them on Saturday.

We wish to encourage NO DOGS ALLOWED at the Flea Market.

PLAYGROUND IMPROVEMENTS

The work on the Playground is really coming along- thanks to our faithful Volunteers and Harvey! We might just finish it up one of these days! Sponsors for sections of fencing are still needed.

All funds raised at our events are poured back into the community for the good of the People and the Borough itself
